293. ANNUAL POLICING PLAN – 2007/08 –
UNDERAGE DRINKING AT FELINFOEL

The Chairman welcomed Inspector E. Bailey, Dyfed-Powys Police, to the meeting.

Pursuant to Minute No. 248, a letter having been received from Inspector E. Bailey, Dyfed-Powys Police, which referred to a recent article printed in a local newspaper concerning alleged instances of youth misconduct in the Felinfoel area, together with comments made by Cllr. R. E. Evans, the Chairman invited Inspector Bailey to address Members.

Inspector Bailey sought to redress inaccuracies reported in the press article and responded to alleged comments made by Cllr. Evans. Inspector Bailey stated that there was no evidence to support the amount of underage drinking mentioned within the Felinfoel area and, indeed, the problem was no worse than that in other areas. Young offenders were known to the police authority, with alcohol being confiscated from those caught. Re-offenders were sent follow-up letters to parents, who, together with the offender, were invited to attend the police station for interview, however it was not police policy to seem heavy handed by taking court proceedings. All public houses and off-license premises were visited regularly by police officers.

Inspector Bailey reiterated that regular meetings were held for liaison purposes and that all Members were welcome to attend and that contact could be made with officers should problems occur.

Members having conveyed their support to the local police authority and Inspector Bailey and in his team in particular, the Chairman thanked Inspector Bailey for attending who thereupon withdrew from the meeting.

The author stated that she appreciated the need for input to decision making at a very local level and the frustration that town and community councillors sometimes felt when trying to convey their opinions and concerns.

The author also circulated details of the new Local Government Bill, with the caveat that there might be some differences in Wales. Ms. Griffiths also informed that she was an active member of the small shops group, which earlier in the year, had produced a report highlighting the difficulties of small local high street shops in the face of fierce competition from the big out-of-town supermarkets. Following which, the Competition Commission had been investigating the UK grocery market and an interim report was expected next year.
