Subject: Sandy and Stradey Community Hall

Good Afternoon,

As you'll be aware, we are currently undertaking a public consultation on proposals for improvements to the junction between A484 Sandy Road and Maes-y-Coed.

Responses to the consultation to date have, unsurprisingly, suggested that parking is a major issue for residents of the area. One possible mitigation measure which was raised during a face-to-face event was the reopening of the Sandy/Stradey Community Hall Car Park during the evenings/nights to allow for parking. We were informed by residents that this had previously been an option.

I just wanted to check what the Rural Council's stance on this was so that we have a better understanding when faced with this query.

Many thanks,
Samara

The below boxes reflects the comments received and gives context to why people feel the way they do over their name suggestions:

Comments received for 26 February Facebook post received 6,662 Views Name it after ppl who had positive impact on kids in area over years or had open door policy . Like Sian Meredith did Muga park
Email rcvd 26 February Hi Darren, do you have a date for the opening of the park? Will it be open before the building works are completed? Also Co-op Park might be a good name as co-operative means something run jointly with its members and that's what Llwynhendy is, a collective of residents who come together to support each other and the end goal is a happy neighbourhood.

Email received 4 April from Cllr A Stephens With the naming of the park. Following the meeting yesterday with Our Llwynhendy and recently with Pro Vision as well as talking to local residents. The suggestion I've had is that it should remain as Gwili Field, or. Comments received for Facebook post 4 April received 8,393 Views Muga park... my kids r already calling it the new muga park Just keep it as Muga park, When is it opening ? X Community park I personally hate the name Muga, haha. I think I'd prefer Co-op Park or Parc y Co-op Parc y Co op. Most of us still call it the co op field but it will be better to have it in Welsh. Maybe put the word field in aswell. I can only speak Wenglish so someone help me out with that. I like the memories one as well though because most great grandparents, grandparents, parents, adults and teens have great childhood memories of the Co op field. It was always the CO-OP field when we were younger, so CO-OP field park. Sounds good in Welsh too, Parc cae CO-OP Muga park or park gwilli Muga park ,the kids will call it . Same as they call tir einon park 'bottom site park' !

Parc hapus

Co op field we always called it so I'd go with Co op park or Parc y Co op

Muga , everyone will prob still call it that regardless of what it will be called as that's what it's known as now

Well the football has been named muga, so I guess for me whatever it's called it will be now called muga park. Plans for it, Looks really good. I really do hope this generation looks after it. I tried for years to get a park when my kids were small.

All the kids in my street are already calling it the muga park

My Kids r already calling it the new muga park . Don't think it should b called anything else xx

Cae Gwili or Parc Gwili. The name gives a clue to where it is. In the case of an emergency it would be quicker to find.

Stick to muga park cool

Text for the 26 February Facebook post:

Llanelli Rural Council wishes to seek the opinion of the community over the naming of the newly developed park at Heol Gwili and Heol Elfed in Llwynhendy. This follows a similar exercise carried out a few months ago where the community helped name the former library building as 'Canolfan Llwynhendy'.

The development of the green space into a park includes:

- A new community building 'Canolfan Llwynhendy' to open in the spring/summer period of this year
- Play area for toddlers
- Outdoor Gym
- Junior play area
- Zip line
- BMX / Scooter tracks
- New pathways
- Amphitheatre
- Extended car park
- Improved drainage to grassed area

The space is also home to a Multi-Use Games Area with floodlights.

We welcome your suggestions for names that reflect the area, its history and heritage.

All suggestions will be considered by the council's Recreation and Welfare Committee on 18 March. Please have your say in the comments section or contact the council directly by emailing enquiries@llanelli-rural.gov.uk or phone 01554 774103.
