289. SOCIETY OF LOCAL COUNCIL CLERKS CIVILITY AND RESPECT PLEDGE

Further to Minute No. 264, members considered correspondence from the Deputy Monitoring Officer, Carmarthenshire County Council.

As part of the Code of Conduct data gathering exercise conducted by the County Council earlier in the year, councils were asked if they had signed up to the above pledge as a means of demonstrating their commitment to standing up to poor behaviour and support civil and respectful conduct.

The responses were reported to the Standards Committee in September and committee members were disappointed to note that only seven councils were able to confirm that they had signed up to the pledge.

The Standards Committee urged all councils that had not already done so to sign up to the pledge being promoted by the Society of Local Council Clerks (SLCC) and make a clear commitment to promote the highest standard of behaviour in the future.

By signing the pledge, the council was agreeing that it would treat councillors, clerks, employees, members of the public, representatives of partner organisations and volunteers with civility and respect in their roles, while agreeing to the following statements:

- The council had put in place a training programme for councillors and staff.
- The council had signed up to the Code of Conduct for councillors.
- The council had good governance arrangements in place including staff contracts and a Dignity at Work policy.
- The council would commit to seek professional help at early stages should civility and respect issues arise.
- The council would commit to calling out bullying and harassment if and when it happened.
- The council would continue to learn from best practice in the sector and aspire to being a role model/champion council e.g. via the Local Council Award Scheme.
- The council supported the continued lobbying for the change in legislation to support the Civility and Respect Pledge, including sanctions for elected members where appropriate.

Following discussion, it was

RESOLVED that the council signs up to the Civility and Respect Pledge.
